Germans Start Retreat on Big Scale in Belgium

WITH THE ALLIED ARMIES IN BELGIUM, Oct. 16—The Germans have started a retreat on a tremendous scale from northern Belgium. French cavalry is approaching Thiel, seven miles from the banks of the Ghent-Bruges canal. The canal itself is only ten miles from the border of Holland. So fast is the enemy retreating that the French, British and Belgian infantry at least in the center of the battle front have lost touch entirely with the enemy. The Belgians advancing astride the Thourout-Bruges and Thourout-Ostend roads have defeated the Germans, who are retreating rapidly.
